

In the Beginning

By: Marizelda S. Eggertsson

In the Beginning... play created and performed by Marizelda S. Eggertsson, explores the theme of creation inspired by the renaissance artist Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel Ceiling and The Last Judgment. The artist uses theatre, music, saxophone solos, mime and dance to express her story. This play tries to shed light onto a woman's life of "redemption", "reconciliation", "liberation" and "salvation", through sights, sounds and the art of mind.
